	We will not withhold any federal income tax, unless you have elected to have tax withheld.	We will not withhold any California personal income tax, unless you have elected to have tax withheld.
If monthly pension is:	$2,100 or higher	$3,490 or higher
	And you do not have a Withholding Election Form on file, we are required under Federal Regulations to withhold federal income tax from your pension as if you are married and claiming three withholding exemptions .	And you do not have a California Withholding Election Form on file, we are required under State Regulations to withhold California personal income tax from your pension as if you are married and claiming three withholding exemptions .
Possible Effect of Insufficient Withholding	Withholding is simply a method of paying taxes. It does not increase or decrease the total amount of your tax liability. If your total income is high enough to require you to pay income taxes, but you do not have enough tax withheld from your pension payments, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You could incur penalties under the estimated tax laws if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.
How to Make a Withholding Election or Change Your Withholding Election	To make your election, complete the back of this form and return it to the Trust Fund Office. Your withholding election will remain in effect until you file a new election form. If you wish to change your election in the future, you can request a new form from the Trust Fund Office.
How long does my election remain in effect	Once you submit a Withholding Election Form, we will continue to withhold taxes in accordance with your election until you change it.
Reporting of Income Tax Withheld	We will report your total annual pension amount to the Internal Revenue Service. The taxes withheld from your pension payments during the year will be reported on the Form 1099-R mailed to you in January of the following year.	We will report your total annual pension amount to the California State Franchise Tax Board. The taxes withheld from your pension payments during the year will be reported on the Form 1099-R mailed to you in January of the following year.
Questions About Income Tax Withholding	If you have a question about how much you should withhold, please consult a tax advisor.
