DEPENDENT ELIGIBILITY AND ENROLLMENT

If you qualify for benefits, the following dependents may be covered:

- Your lawful spouse
- Unmarried children who are less than 26 years of age. The definition of unmarried children are those declared by you as dependents for federal income tax purposes and include your:
  - Natural children
  - Stepchildren
  - Legally adopted children from the time they are placed in your custody
  - Children for whom adoption proceedings have been started
  - Children for whom you have been legally appointed guardian
  - Any child required to be recognized under a qualified medical child support order
- Any spouse or child who is eligible under the plan as an active or retired participant will not also be considered eligible as a dependent.
- A child will not be considered a dependent for more than one eligible active or retired participant.
- Disabled dependent children over age 26 and incapable of self-supporting employment because of mental retardation or physical handicap will have eligibility extended.
- Eligibility for all persons listed above shall be subject to all provisions and limitations of the trust agreement and plan document as well as to any rules or regulations adopted by the Board of Trustees.

KAISER PERMANENTE MEMBERS ONLY

Kaiser Foundation Health Plan Arbitration Agreement:

I understand that (except for Small Claims Court cases, claims subject to a Medicare appeals procedure, and, claims that cannot be subject to binding arbitration under governing law), any dispute between myself, my heirs, relatives, or other associated parties on the one hand and Health Plan, its health care providers, or other associated parties on the other hand, for alleged violation of any duty arising out of or related to membership in Health Plan, including any claim for medical or hospital malpractice (a claim that medical services were unnecessary or unauthorized or were improperly, negligently, or incompetently rendered), for premises liability, or relating to the coverage for, or delivery of, services or items, irrespective of legal theory, must be decided by binding arbitration under California law and not by lawsuit or resort to court process, except as applicable law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings. I agree to give up our right to a jury trial and accept the use of binding arbitration. I understand that the full arbitration provision is contained in the Evidence of Coverage.
